Current Business: Wayne received word from Bishop Allende that formal charges were being sent to Synod in Chicago. Butch asked if we got our tables back yet and have not. Chrissie offered her truck.

Committee Reports:

- Finance: No report at this time. Butch sent a thank you to Don Pontones for the meat and the donation they made.
- Faith/Family/Worship: Thanksgiving dinner October 29 more details to come.
- Outreach/Social: No report at this time.
- Worship: Chaney read Susan's report: Choir practices are now on Wednesday's at 7pm. Sunday, December 17th the choir will perform the cantata "The Greatest Story Ever Told." Time for the cantata will be determined later. Read the schedule of Pastors for October and special service dates. Also, we are still in need of Altar Guild volunteers, please see Carol Richards if you are interested. The question was brought up regarding our 2 services and Wayne recommended to see what the Pastor who are filling in recommend Chrissie motioned to accept and Mary 2nd to see what other Pastor's recommend.
- Christian Ed./Youth: Chrissie asked if our church would like to participate in Sandy Valley's Boo at the School by handing out candy during the Trunk or Treat part of this activity on October 24 6-730pm. Chrissie will get in contact with other local pastors and churches to participate also. There will be a signup sheet for those wishing to donate candy. Chrissie will ask Jenn Crone to assist her. Dottie has asked Chrissie to take over the Learning Center and Chrissie said she will take over but needs to talk a little more to Dottie regarding the Learning Centre. Bill also asked about Sunday School and Chrissie will look into this also and discuss this with Dottie also. It will more than likely happen during the 9:30am service.
